

ethical performance

the independent newsletter for socially responsible business

'the definitive reference source to who's who among CSR service providers'

The Ethical Performance CSR Professional Services Directory is your key to the offices of CSR managers and directors working for organizations all over the world that you want to win as clients. An entry will also enhance your standing with your existing clients – remember, the competition will be in the CSR Professional Services Directory too.

reach your target audience

The online section of the Ethical Performance CSR Professional Services Directory is the most comprehensive website tool of its kind, and is visited by more than 70,000 unique visitors a year from all around the world. The print version is sent at no charge to 3500 individuals working in the CSR field at companies and institutions worldwide, including named individuals with CSR responsibilities who are key budget holders and decision makers at:

- Fortune 100 companies
- the largest European companies
- The Russell 100 and S&P Asian indices
- FTSE 350 companies

maximize your presence

By taking a Free, Silver or Gold entry in the Directory, you choose your own level of presence and can tailor this to your budget. Introduce the services you offer with a 100 word description (Silver), or increase your profile by including your logo and have an extended description with 200 words (Gold) appearing in both the print and online editions.

As an entrant, you will:

- have a presence in the only stand-alone print directory of CSR professional services
- reach a global online audience via the fully searchable web version
- access the global audience of decision-makers and budget holders working for organizations known to use, or to be planning to use, CSR services
- benefit from association with the premier business newsletter on CSR and SRI

- large privately held companies
- government agencies and institutions,
- partnerships and non-profit bodies
- investment management companies and institutions with a known interest in socially responsible investment
- business schools and university depts.

YOUR ENTRY WILL APPEAR IN BOTH THE PRINT AND ONLINE EDITIONS OF THE CSR PROFESSIONAL SERVICES DIRECTORY

Achilles is a leading global supplier of services for sustainable procurement. We build and support a wide range of supplier management and business solutions to hundreds of the world's largest companies.

Achilles identifies, evaluates, and monitors supplier information on behalf of major organisations worldwide. We build and support supply chain compliance in many industry sectors, creating unique and valuable global networks. Our services include risk to the supply chain and create new opportunities for business for both buyers and suppliers.

A trusted partner to more than 500 of the world's largest companies and around 100,000 suppliers, Achilles provides the efficient matching of specific buyers to their ideal suppliers. The availability of tender data within the Achilles system allows companies to improve the efficiency of their procurement cycles and manage commercial, health, safety, environment and CSR-related risks throughout their supply chains to help them accurately and confidently assess the total impact of their procurement decisions.

Underpinning all Achilles activities are three core values. Together, these values help us to develop our services for sustainable procurement.

Collaborative: Achilles establishes and manages key buyers and supplier communities, creating unique global networks, and offers an on-going visible understanding and intelligence.

Insightful: To make the right procurement decisions, Achilles provides accurate, up-to-date information essential in making procurement activities sustainable.

Neutral: We're dedicated to delivering equal treatment and total objectivity to the thousands of buyers and suppliers in the community we manage.

Acris is an independent CR consultancy based in London, but with staff across the UK. We offer a full range of social, environmental and ethical services.

Our things give us a distinctive advantage:

- clients can expect to build long-term personal relationships with a small number of partners
- we don't come to UK with any particular agenda, and are practical in our approach
- we do what's best for clients, treating everybody as a friend and providing the information to 'tip off'
- we have a strong preference for evidence, analysis and data and don't mind challenging conventional wisdom and ingrained opinion.
